

OVER A FOOT OF SNOW THIS WEEK – TOP TO BOTTOM SKIING IS OPEN AT KIMBERLEY ALPINE RESORT

Kimberley, BC – Kimberley Alpine Resort is wide-open in full operation on all lifts and over 50 runs open! It may feel like spring down in the valleys, but due to our high elevation we are still in mid-winter mode, having received a foot of snow in the last week, and with great coverage and groomed skiing on our extensive man-made snow runs. Warm weather and sunshine are expected for the next few days with cooler temperatures and snow forecasted at the end of the week. Check our packed schedule of events that take us right to the end of the season on April 4th, and get your room booked for all the happenings at Kimberley Alpine Resort this weekend including Winter Mayhem Rail Jam on Saturday night and all our family activities over the weekend. Don't miss out!
